January 17-18, 2007

Thank you very much for the tour and explanation of the Arabic language program at Star International Academy. Your enthusiasm and pride in the program was evident in your voice. The program is extremely well thought-out and sequenced. It was really interesting to actually see the program being taught in the classroom with such enthusiastic response by the students in the kindergarten classroom. The pride and enthusiasm displayed by the teacher was so evident. The fact that the program is presented to all students on a daily basis speaks to the value placed on the program. Students at all levels appear to be enthusiastic about learning the language. The student work which is displayed shows the willingness of the teachers and students to display, with pride, the accomplishments of their efforts. Thank you, again, for your very informative presentation. It was
